Gary:

She had to get additional pricing from Republic directly, that was not included in the original quotations. This took several telephone calls. Republic quote a transportation price higher than a previous bid. This had to be corrected with an additional telephone call. Republic also added a cost for a rinse out that was not on the original price quotations. This was clarified and a change order was required. She also helped me with the change order purchase requisition making sure it was correct, prior to approval from the cost scheduler.

Leroy:

I am generally ok with the hours except for the procurement hours. Does it really take 7 hours to do a change order for Republic. I would like to know the purpose of the change order.

Thanks
